

Stepniak, in his "Underground Russia," thus describes a secret printing office of the nihilists: "I went all over the room in which the work was carried on. The mechanism was extremely simple. A few cases, with various kinds of type; a little cylinder, just cast, of a kind of gelatinous substance, closely resembling carpenter's glue, and somewhat pleasant to smell; a large heavy cylinder, covered with cloth, which served as the press; some blacking brushes and sponges in a pan; two jars of printing ink. Everything was arranged in such a manner that it could be hidden in a quarter of an hour in a large clothes press standing in a corner. They explained to me the mechanism of the work, and smilingly told me of some little artifices which they employed to divert the suspicion of the doornik who come every day with water wood, etc. The system adopted was not that of not allowing him to enter, but precisely the reverse. Under various pretexts, they made him see the whole of the rooms as often as possible, having first removed everything which would excite suspicion. When these pretexts failed others were invented. Being unable to find a plausible reason for him to enter the inner room, Mne. Kriloff one day went and told him there was a rat there which must be immediately killed. The doornik went, and certainly found nothing; but the trick was played. He had seen the whole of the rooms, and could bear testimony that there was absolutely nothing suspicious in them. Once a month they invariably had persons to clean the floors of all the rooms." Papers of this description do not have agents out soliciting advertisements.

The Stockton Mail recently gave a list of Nevada writers and omitted to mention Joseph Goodman. This omission was speedily noticed—as we all knew it would be—by several California papers and the Mail acknowledged the oversight. Mr. Goodman properly stands at the head of the list. His English was as pure in diction as it was strong and his pen was a sledge hammer or a fairy wand at will. He is now raising grapes in Fresno county California, and now and then gives his friends a poem, a play or a fancy sketch which shows that he is still in his prime. No man on the coast is a better judge than he of literary work or a more hearty hater of its shams and defects.

At a meeting of the Capital Turf Club, held Friday evening at the Capitol Hotel, Sacramento, says the Record-Union, after due consideration the club, by an unanimous vote, expelled Charles H. Shear for fraudulent driving, and Charles Shear, Jr., was expelled for conduct unbecoming a gentleman, in attempting to interfere with a horse for the purpose of preventing him from winning a race.

George Ernst, Democratic nominee for Surveyor-General at the last Nevada election, has brought a libel suit against the San Francisco Post for $30,000 for defamation of character. The Post published an article showing how Nevada's school fund lost $1,000,000, which charged Ernst with sacrificing the public interest for personal consideration in voting against the Schooling bill.

Texas is about to hang a woman. She caused her little girl to go on the streets as a beggar, submitted her to cruel privation in order to make her look miserable enough to arouse pity, and finally murdered her because she did not bring home a satisfactory amount of money. Tally one for Texas.

A Message from a Wreck. CHICAGO, May 23.—A bottle was found on the beach at the foot of 25th street here this morning, which contained a postal card on which was written: "May 20, 1883—The schooner Seagull has gone down off Chicago. I am on a spar. Send help." Signed, "James Donahoe, Mate. The Seagull was a three-masted schooner, 21 tons burden, and was owned in Chicago.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

Taber Given the Cold Shoulder.

DENVER, May 23.—The recent embezzlement suit brought by Taber against Bush is said to have been the result of a quarrel growing out of the refusal of Mrs. Bush to associate with the new Mrs. Tabor, and has excited a great deal of bad feeling against Taber. The general impression is that the prosecution was malicious. So high has the feeling run that the Denver Club, the most prominent organization of the kind in the city, expelled Taber, adopting at the same time resolutions to the effect that the expulsion was due to the fact that he married a woman with whom the Club members' families could not associate. The significance of this action is shown by the fact that all prominent politicians of the city are members of the Denver Club, including Senator Hill, Secretary Teller and H. R. Walcott. It is understood that Bush will now bring suit against Taber for $50,000 for alleged malicious prosecution.

Tynan's Whereabouts.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Dr. Williams, having been interviewed yesterday, said: "The fact is, Ford, Sheridan and Walsh and Rossa never saw Tynan in their lives, nor would they know him if they should meet him. You can rest assured that no accurate information can be secured from those sources. Tynan went out of town yesterday for a few days to attend to some business. He said it would be practically impossible for any one to discover his place of residence or identity. Not all the detectives in America could accomplish that feat. Tynan is not an American citizen, but a true Irishman, and his faith in and respect for the sympathy of all Irish-Americans are in proportion to the amount of money, powder or dynamite he represents."

Success of the Home Troops.

CAIRO, Egypt, May 22.—The Governor of the Soudan telegraphs to the Khedive, reporting that after the battle of April 29th the rebel forces were pursued. Two vessels, commanded by Hicks Pasha and Gehick Bey, cut off their retreat at the passage of the Nile. The majority of the native chiefs submitted to the Egyptians, and the Governor is sanguine that others will follow their example.

Mail Robbed.

GOLDSBURG, N. M., May 22.—From an advance Clifton special we learn that about 8 o'clock last night, a masked robber took in the north bound stage on the Lordsburg and Clifton route. After securing the two mail sacks he ordered the driver to move on. The total registered mail consisted of one registered letter, and it is not believed that the energetic individual realized sufficient to defray his expenses at the next mining camp. George A. Townsend Whipped. NEW YORK, May 23.—The World says: Duncan Harrison, brother of Maude Harrison, the actress, pummeled George Alfred Townsend the well known correspondent, last night up town, for writing an insulting letter about Maude. Want It All. NEW YORK.—A Times editorial, under the head of "A Bold Demand," says: The Southern Pacific Company, in its application recently filed, coolly asks for 14,000,000 acres in Arizona, which have never been earned by that or any other company. It is not probable this application would have been made if the precedent had not been furnished by the President and Secretary Teller in case of the lapsed grant in Louisiana. If the Secretary had waited for Congressional action in relation to that grant, the lands which have been given to the New Orleans Pacific would undoubtedly have been restored to the public domain. The Star says: This is the transaction which Ben Butterworth of Ohio, with a powerful lobby to aid him, endeavored to have ratified by the last Congress. Having failed in the Legislature, the Southern Pacific nabobs now appear in the Department building with their hopes and arguments based on precedents by Carl Schurz and other Secretaries. The domain which Huntington essays to grab, will furnish farms of 100 acres apiece to nearly 150,000 self-supporting American citizens, and pay off a big slice of our national debt. Gould's Views of Stocks. NEW YORK, May 23.—On speaking of the stock market, Gould said the bears had had everything their own way for a long time, and have doubtless made a good deal of money, but we are growing babies as fast as ever we did. The immigration is enormous and the population is nearer 55,000,000 than in 1881. "I think before the end of the year a good many of these people will make up their minds that many of the railroad stocks are cheap and will buy them, and in a manner that will make the bears drop in two weeks all they have made in months."
